A. ADD: SP 360 Computer-mediated Communication / 3 Credits

Computer networks, both local and Internet, have emerged as a dominant force in shaping communication patterns and our ways of interacting with one another. This team-taught course will look at the effects of computer-mediated communication (CMC) on social, political and economic communication. All students will participate in a class-wide electronic discussion group and help construct a web page that brings together resources for studying CMC. Prerequisite: CS 114, AugieNet to Internet or permission of instructors. SP 102 would be dropped to add this course.

Seconded by Jeff Coussens and approved.

B. New Final Exam Schedule

Seconded by Chuck Hyser.

After a lengthy discussion concerning the new final exam schedule, a motion was made by Ben Nefzger and seconded by Dick Ballman to table the original motion.

The original motion was tabled.

An amendment was made by Lou Belby to change the Christmas recess to begin 6:00 p.m. on Friday, December 15, 2000 and return at 8:00 a.m. on Tuesday, January 2, 2001.

Seconded by Jon Clauss, amendment was not approved.

A second amendment was made by Dan Lee to change the Christmas recess to begin 6:00 p.m. on Thursday, December 21, 2000 and return on Monday, January 8, 2001 at 8:00 a.m.

Seconded by Jon Clauss and approved.

After the amendments were discussed and voted on, the Academic Calendars for 2000-2001 and 2001-2002 were seconded by Dan Lee and approved.

It was noted that Fall Term Final Exams 2000-2001 should read Nov. 13 – 16.

6. Other Business

Lou Belby commended Bill Hammer for a job well done as Senate chair.

7. Announcements

Jon Clauss announced that there were information brochures on the Ameritech program that would be running this summer. The registration deadline is May 10, 1999.
Bill Hammer announced that Chris Vaughan would like to visit the fall Senate meeting to discuss any Y2K problems that might occur from equipment other than PC’s. He doesn’t have any concern about PC’s. Ellie Beach asked if Chris should attend the Full Faculty meeting rather than a Senate meeting. Bill Hammer will check.

8. Adjournment

Cecilia Vogel moved to adjourn the meeting and it was seconded by Lou Belby. The meeting was adjourned at 12:55 p.m.
