John Fredrik Seedoff was born 21 April 1861 in Askeby, Östergötland, Sweden. His parents names were Jonas Fredrik Hag and Carolina Johansdotter who were also both born in Askeby. He also had 2 siblings named Carl August Hagg (13 September 1855), and Gustaf Albert (8 October 1863). John’s father was a soldier back in Sweden (Registration Card). His parents got married in 1852 in Sweden. Before John left for America his last name was Hagg, and once he arrived in Rock Island he changed it to Seedoff. John emigrated from Sweden in 18 August 1882 from the Göteborg port at the age of 21 on a ship called the Romeo, he was the only one on the ship heading to Rock Island, the rest were heading to New York. He ended up settling in Rockford Township Rockford City Ward 2, Winnebago, Illinois, United States. John registered at Augustana College in the Fall of 82. During his time at Augustana, John loaded up his class schedule with a selection of courses such as religion, science, mathematics, and several different languages, such as German and Latin. He graduated from Augustana College in 1886. In the Fall of 1886, John joined the Augustana Theological Seminary and completed the program in 1888. He was later ordained on 24 June 1888 in Galesburg Illinois, then called to Topeka Kansas Trinity.
