“ Tit. Härmed får etc. [this is a reference to an appendage to a writing] Litt. H

Vid upprop företrädde, för Kden [käranden] Erik Dalberg i Borlänge, enligt bevittnad rättegångsfullmakt in blanco för innehafvaren, eller den han i sitt ställe förordnade, och personligen Sden [Svaranden].

Efter läsning af stämningsansökan för-mälde sden [svaranden], att han väl varit bekant och sällskapat med Kden, men icke till henne stått i förtroligare förhållande, och vid den tid hon blifvit rådd med i fråga komna barn undergått beväringsexercis å Rommehed, hvarför han bestred käromålet.

Translation

S[ame] D[ay] To this ===== , =====, see § 215
Tit. [a title] Thus may [then there is a refence to Appendix H].
At the call up present for the plaintiff was Erik Dalberg of Borlänge, according to a power of attorney, signed by witnesses, but blank, to be used by the bearer, or the person he found suitable, [also] present was the defendant in person.

After the reading of the summons the defendant said that he did know the plaintiff and been in her company, but never had had any intimate relations with her, and at the time when she must have become pregnant with the child mentioned, he had been doing his national service at Rommehed, so he opposed the action.

(Today the distance between Domnarvet, where Anna lived, and to Rommehed, where Edvin was billeted, is about 10 kilometers, not impossible for a young guy with a bicycle, for instance.)
