A secret in the Swedish CD:s and DVD:s

BY ELISABETH THORSELL

All the Swedish CD:s and DVD:s published by the Swedish Federation of Genealogical Societies (Sveriges Släktforskarförbund) have been programmed by the same programmer, Johan Gidlöf, who is otherwise working in the Stockholm City Archives (Stockholms Stadsarkiv). Being both an archivist and a programmer he knows what tools the researchers need.

One of the more underused functions is the listsearch, which is usually available for some parts of the search window.

For instance, if you wish to search for someone named Carlsson, you may by using the listsearch search for Carlsson, Carlson, Karlsson, Karlson and other variations of this surname (Efternamn). Buttons are also available for given names (Förnamn), place of birth (Födelseort), and place of death (Dödsort).

When you click on the listsearch button, you come to this window:

be a red tick mark beside the chosen name. When you have filled in all the names you want, then go down to the traffic light in the lower left corner and click on that.

Now you are back at the search window, and you will see all the names you marked in the Efternamn field.

You can not change them now unless you again click on the listsearch button and then use the Clear (Rensa) button, which takes away all the tick marks, and you have to start again.

Next do the same for the Förnamn (given names) and then click on Sök (search), and the names will appear on the left-hand panel. To the right you have the details on the person that is marked by a color bar. Scroll down and the details change.

On top of the right-hand panel there are buttons for the clipboard and the printer. On some of the CD:s and DVD:s there is also an American flag, which changes some words into English.

They are all the same

The listsearch utility is a way of making searching for names of people and places so much easier.

And it is not only found on the Federation CD:s and DVD:s, but also on the Värmlands Kyrkboksregister, Jönköpingsbygdens church book index, and many more. They are all based on a Federation program that member societies can use.
