Births and Baptisms in the St. Ansgarius Church (Minneapolis) 1892–1900

Arthur Louis Finnell, CGRS*

In my previous two installments covering the deaths and marriages in the St. Ansgarius Episcopal Church of Minneapolis (see SAG, Vol. II, No. 2, June, 1982 and SAG, Vol. II, No. 3, September, 1982) I mentioned briefly the history of this parish and its mission among the many Swedes who had arrived in that city. It was a parish which ministered chiefly to the newly arrived Swedish immigrants, most of them recruited from the working class milieu. This final installment deals with the births and baptisms of the many children born in the parish during the years 1892–1900. These are also to be found in Vol. II of the parish records (as stated previously, Vol. I seems to contain no information concerning the parishioners themselves). Since there are not any membership rosters for the early years of the parish, the listing of births, marriages and deaths provides a well defined cross section of the people affiliated with this church. As stated above, all of the abstracted material comes from Vol. II of the parish records, which now are housed in the Diocesan Archives of the Episcopal Church of Minnesota, Lane House, 309 Clifton Avenue, Minneapolis, MN 55403.

Below are listed all of the children born and baptized in the St. Ansgarius Church, with the dates for each, as well as the names of the parents. The baptism sponsors have been excluded but may be found in the original records. Unless otherwise noted, all of the births occurred in the city of Minneapolis.

Some Comments on Swedish American By-Names

Henry Hanson's article, "Swedish American By-Names" in the December issue of SAG was very interesting. As a youngster in Springfield, MA I was interested in everything Swedish, probably because of my parents' membership in the local Vasa Order lodge and our family membership in the Bethesda Swedish Lutheran Church. I remember hearing that this Swede was a "Skåning" and another was a "Smålänning" and when still a third Swede was referred to as "Blekingen" I did not realize until years later that his real name was Anderson and the by-name was used to differentiate him from many other Andersons. A native of the province of Dalarna in Sweden is known as dalmas, shortened to mas. Two Johnson brothers from Avesta in that province named Johnson were known as "Stormasen" and "Lill-masen". Although they were not much different in size, one was more aggressive. This might have contributed to his being named "Big" and his brother "Small". The by-name may also have alluded to their ages. Another native from Dalarna, whose name I never did learn, was called "Masen" and he actually took the English surname Mason. We also had "Långe Erik" Erickson and in Worcester, MA I heard references made to "Mjök" Anderson, presumably because he either distributed milk or owned a dairy.

In my father's birth parish of Älgårås (Skar.) there was a farm named Saltpetersjudaretorpet (indicating that the owner at one time had been engaged in manufacturing saltpeter). One of his sons was known as Lars "Sjuars" Sigfrid. There was also "Johanna på fläskebacken" (Johanna on Bacon Hill) and "Elmer i korsvägen" (Elmer at the crossroads). Those are some examples from my own experience.
