Naturalizations of Scandinavians in Penobscot Co., ME 1840-1900

Nils William Olsson

Readers of SAG will have observed no doubt that the editor, from time to time, has published lists of naturalizations as well as declarations of intent of Scandinavian settlers in this country. The official documentation of an immigrant's presence in the U.S., his official act of becoming a U.S. citizen or declaring his intent of becoming one, witnessed by a county or district court clerk, is of course, primary evidence of that person's residence in America.

As stated in earlier essays on this subject, the compiler cannot stress enough the importance of this body of documentary evidence. While for many years naturalization records have been gathering dust in hundreds of city, county and federal courts, there is now a movement to preserve this documentary source in archival institutions, ranging from the National Archives in Washington and its many branches throughout the country, to the many state archives and finally, in some instances, to communities, where in historical societies, public libraries and city archives these records are now available to the public.

When this journal first commenced eight years ago, one of the main points of focus was the presentation of lists of Swedish immigrants to this country, whether these appeared in passenger lists, passport records, parish registers or naturalization proceedings. So, once more we wish to present a list of naturalizations, this time taken from the Penobscot County Court records, housed in the Maine State Archives in Augusta, ME.

Additionally, there is also a list of declarations of intent for the same county. Some of these may duplicate what is already in the naturalization lists, but it seemed more expedient to publish the entire record, without excluding any names, despite the risk of duplication.

Among the Penobscot naturalizations are also some New Sweden, ME residents, about whom there appeared a lengthy study in one of the first issues of this journal (SAG, Vol. I, No.3, Sept. 1981, pp. 93-118). References to these New Sweden petitioners may be found in the notes section following this presentation.

SAG Contributor Dies

Word has just been received that Prof. Sten Carlsson of Uppsala, Sweden, contributing editor of Swedish American Genealogist, died 5 August at the age of 71. Prof. Carlsson, one of Sweden's leading historians, had frequently visited the U.S., participating in emigration seminars in many parts of the country, as well as lecturing at various universities from coast to coast. His participation in the editorial work of SAG will be greatly missed.

Person/Palmquist

My paternal grandfather, Carl Person, left Sweden 15 May 1891 for America, his passage being paid for by a farmer in Webster Co., IA. Is there anywhere that a record can be found of this indenture?

Soon after his arrival he changed his name to Palmquist and was naturalized with that name in Cook Co., IL in 1902.

Persson/Peterson/Persdotter

I am looking for five brothers and sisters from the village of Skartofta in Öved Parish (Malm.) who emigr. to the U.S.

Anders Persson, b. 22 Sept. 1858.

Hanna Persdotter, b. 19 Nov. 1861; in America she married Anders Karlsson.

Both of these siblings went to Swede Grove, MN in April 1882.

Maria Persdotter, b. 16 Nov. 1868; d. 18 July 1921. She may have m. a person named Andersson.

Olof Persson/Peterson, b. 9 Jan. 1871.

Nils Persson, b. 13 July 1873; went to St. Paul, MN in March 1880. Any information regarding these persons would be much appreciated.

Fredriksson

Carl Viktor Fredriksson, b. in Fuxerna Parish (Älvs.) 26 Jan. 1876, emigr. to America 29 Sept. 1893. He was a brother of my maternal grandmother, Emilia Sofia Fredriksson, b. 15 Oct. 1878 and d. in Uddevalla 1938. His last address we know of dates back to 1950 when it was 3315 Jefferson Avenue, Houston, TX. In 1950 Carl Viktor was in contact with his cousins in Lilla Edet as well as Långedrag in Sweden, but since that time all contact has been broken. I would appreciate any clue as to what happened to Carl Viktor.

Nelson, Malmquist, Schrevelius

My grandfather, Oscar W. Nelson, emigr. to the U.S. ca. 1889. He lived in Butte, MT in 1900 and moved to Seattle, WA ca. 1903, where he lived until his death in 1942. I believe I have found his birth record—an Oscar Wilhelm was b. in Björnekulla Parish (Krist.) 27 July 1872, the s. of Assarina Nilsdotter. Oscar had a brother, Frans Edvard, also b. in Björnekulla 18 March 1871. Assarina was b. in Kvidinge Parish (Krist.) 10 Aug. 1850 and she and her two sons moved from Björnekulla 1873, ostensibly to Höganäs Parish (Malm.), but they have not been found in the Höganäs records. Family lore has it that Assarina Nilsdotter died, leaving him an orphan and that his brother “died at sea”. My grandfather said that he also used the surname of Malmquist, which might mean that he was the foster son or the real son of a man named Malmquist. I would like to hear from anyone who has found Oscar Wilhelm, Frans Edvard or Assarina Nilsdotter in the Swedish parish records after their move from Björnekulla 1873. Assarina Nilsdotter was the granddaughter of Knut Schrevelius (1773-1827) of Perstorp Parish (Krist.). I have information on the Schrevelius family of Skåne which I would be glad to share.

Strandholm

My grandfather, Gabriel Strandholm, b. in Vörå or Korsnäs in Finland, emigr. to the U.S. toward the end of the 19th century. He m. in the U.S. 29 Sept. 1896 my grandmother, Adelina Mathilda Blomqvist, b. at Finström in the Åland Islands 18 June 1868. Their daughter (my mother), Jesse Alina Strandholm was b. in Cedarville, MI 7 July 1898. My grandfather died 22 May 1898, just before the birth of his dau. and the following year my grandmother returned to Finland with my mother.

I am anxious to know something of my grandfather, when and where was he born, what did he do in America, how did he die? Any information concerning him would be much appreciated.

Matson (Mattsson)

I need information about Nils Matson and his wife Margaret (Margareta) and their descendants. Nils arr. in New Sweden 1654 and took up land along the Delaware and Schuylkill Rivers. Nils is said to have come from Torshälla Parish (Söd.) aboard the ship Örn, which departed from Göteborg 2 Feb. 1654 and arr. in Delaware 20 May the same year. In 1663 Margareta Matson was called a witch. On 7 Dec. 1683 Margaret was tried before William Penn in Philadelphia for witchcraft and on 27 Dec. 1683 she was found guilty of having the fame of a witch. I need to verify connection of my ggggg grandmother Hannah Matson (Davies) to Nils and Margaret. Hannah is said to be a great granddaughter.

Jonasson, Kones, Pedersdatter, Jørem, Finvold, Larsson, Jonsson

I am looking for descendants of Lars Jonasson Kones, b. in Jämtland 2 Oct. 1829. The surname comes from the village of Konäs. Lars was the s. of Jonas Andersson Kones and m. in Trones, Norway 7 July 1858 Beret Pedersdatter, b. 31 May 1840, dau. of Peder Olsen Skogen and Beret Jensdatter Birkevann. The couple had the following children, b. in Norway - Beret Johanna, b. 28 Feb. 1858; Peder Jakob, b. 24 Aug. 1859; Lorents, b. 2 Oct. 1861; Johan, b. 23 Jan. 1863; Pernille, b. 19 June 1866 and Salamon, b. ca. 1868. The family emigr. from Trondhjem in June 1871 and settled in Eau Claire, WI. It is not known if the children used the surname Kones in the U.S. They may have used the surnames Jørem, Finvold, Larsson or Jonasson. In the early 1900s a relative from Norway visited the Kones family and reported that the mother or the dau. Beret was active in the movement for more humane treatment of horses. The rumor is that Lars Kones worked as a well-driller and that he was accidentally killed at work. Possible places where the family res. are Martel and Woodville, WI.
