Notes*

*I wish to thank Peter Stebbins Craig for his able assistance and information about early settlers of New Sweden, especially the Poulson, Stille, Jacobsson and Stiddem ancestors.

¹This ancestral line only includes the Delaware branch of the family.

²Mostly English line with possible exception of No. 296, not listed here, who according to Katharine Utter Waterman in 1941 states that he was probably "Nicholas Utter of Westerly, RI" and suggests that Nicholas may have been Nils Mattsson Utter, soldier from Sweden, hired in Stockholm 1653 and sent to DE in 1654 aboard the Örn. Some of the Swedes were persuaded by the Dutch to remain in America when most were returned to Sweden in 1655.

³He is listed first of five sons and two daughters in will of Benjamin Paulson, dated 18 June 1729.

⁴According to intestate administration of PA.

⁵When his will was probated in New Castle Co.

⁶He was probably the youngest son of Paul Johnson Mullica, a Finn, but listed as Hendrick when the parents moved to MD.

⁷When his will was dated in New Castle Co.

⁸She was probably the daughter of Simon Johnson, a Finn.

⁹He may have come from a town named Talley, northeast of Carmarthen, Dyfed in Wales to Upland, now Chester, PA, by 1682.

¹⁰She was the widow of John Johnson according to the estate settlement of 1686.

¹¹He arrived at Burlington, NJ aboard the Kent 1677.

¹²He was listed as a tanner.

- ¹³ He arrived with his parents to DE aboard the Charitas 1641 at the age of 1 1/2 years.
- ¹⁴ According to the DE Census of 1693.
- ¹⁵ She was the widow of a man named Peterson.
- ¹⁶ When on an official mission to London as a young man he was kidnapped on a London Street and brought to Wyoak Parish, Charles City Co., VA, where he was sold into servitude for five years. At the end of his service, he made his way to New Sweden on the Delaware early in 1684.
- ¹⁷ She m. for the second time John William Lerchenziehler.
- ¹⁸ According to letters of administration, New Castle Co., DE.
- ¹⁹ She married for the second time Peter Peterson Smith before 3 Jan. 1718.
- ²⁰ A Finn, he arrived in America in 1654 as a soldier aboard the Örn. He was naturalized in MD 6 Nov. 1683.
- ²¹ George Jonnston, History of Cecil County, Maryland (Elkton, MD 1881), p. 224.
- ²² New Castle Court Records, 2:146.
- ²³ Stille was probably born on the island of Solö but grew up on Humblö, part of the Penningby estate in Länna Parish (Upps.). He married in Sweden, probably in 1633, since he had a daughter, born ca. 1634. He arrived in America in 1641 aboard the Charitas with his wife, a seven year-old daughter and a son, 1 1/2 years old.
- ²⁴ He entered Swedish government service in 1629 and served until his death.
- ²⁵ From 1678 until her death she served as the royal housekeeper at Gripsholm Castle to Hedvig Eleonora, Dowager Queen of Sweden.
- ²⁶ He is listed in the 1693 Census as born in Sweden, but his sons (Jacob, John and Hendrick Hendricksson) were not. Thus, he could not be the 1656 Mercurius immigrant. More likely he was Hendrick Jacobsson, soldier, who arrived with Rising in 1654. Furthermore, he d. after 1 May 1704, the date of his will, in which he devised land (acquired 20 March 1686) to his son Hendrick Hendrickson. (New Castle County Survey Book A, p. 246, cited by Ruth Springer in Delaware History, Vol. VI, p.152, n. 31.) He was described as being of Chester County when he made the 1686 purchase from the Stedham family for land south of Brandywine. (New Castle Court Records, 2:160).
On 25 June 1701, "Hen. Jacobson, now very ancient" made an affidavit before Justice Cornelius Empson of New Castle County regarding his earlier occupation and ownership of land on Crum Kill in Chester (now Delaware) County, PA, between 1674 and 1688, in partnership with Nils Mattsson. (Pennsylvania Archives, Second Series, Vol. XIX, pp. 239-240).
- ²⁷ In 1683 the wives of Hendrick Jacobsson and Nils Mattsson were indicted on witchcraft charges. On 12 Sept. 1683, Hendrick Jacobson posted bond for his wife, "Yeshro Hendrickson." (Pennsylvania Provincial Council Minutes, Vol. I, p.93). She is described as "Getro Hendrickson" on 20 March 1684 when Jacob Hendrickson (their eldest son) posted bond for her good behavior. (Ibid., Vol. I, p. 96). It is uncertain why Gertrude ("Yeshro" and "Getro" was called a "Hendrickson." Perhaps because this was the surname of her sons.
- ²⁸ He had arrived in Delaware in 1655 as a Dutch sergeant, stationed at Ft. Altena (earlier Ft. Christina, later Wilmington, DE).
- ²⁹ At the New Castle Court on 17 Oct. 1683, "Catherin," wife of Jacob Vander Veer testified that she had been in this country for 25-26 years. (New Castle Court Records, Vol. II, pp. 71-72). After the death of her husband, she moved to Penns Neck with her youngest son, Jacob Vandever, Jr. Her burial on 9 Feb. 1720 is reported in the Penns Neck church records. — The Records of the Swedish Lutheran Churches at Raccoon and Penns Neck 1713-1786 (New Jersey 1938), p. 326.
- ³⁰ By will of 1 Feb. 1685/1686, he was born in Hammell (Denmark ? Germany ?); died before 18 March 1685/1686 when New Castle Court granted widow Christina lifetime 1/3 interest in his estate. (New Castle Court Records, Vol. II, p. 149). Will was proved 24 April 1686. His first wife d. in Puerto Rico and he married for the second time, probably in Gothenburg ca. 1653.
- ³¹ It was on this date that Timen Stiddem married for the third time Christina, daughter of Olof Thorsson, and widow of Walraven Johnson de Vos. The marriage date is shown in the New Castle Court Records, Vol. I, p. 404.
