Prof. Roger Hallin's address is Northwest Surgical Association, 2226 N.W. Pettygrove, Portland, OR. Thanks to his father's information concerning O.A. Hallin's origins I have determined that his great, great, great, great grandfather, Lafvas Lars Andersson (1696-1787) in Utanmyra, Sollerön was the son of Anders Persson in Vad, Söderbärke Parish (Kopp.), who d. 1698 and was thus a paternal uncle of the wife of Per Andersson (1721-1782), a member of the Swedish Riksdag (see my article "Byn Vad i Söderbärke" in Släkt och Hävd, 1971, pp. 225-242.

Two Swedish Nobility Queries

Pontus Möller of Solna, Sweden, has asked SAG readers to help him with two additional queries dealing with Swedish nobility. These are:

1. Oscar Fredrik Trolle, who called himself Tornqvist, was born in Katarina Parish, Stockholm 23 July 1891 and moved 15 Feb. 1897 to Gåsvik, Vaddö Parish (Stock.) as the foster son of a tailor in Gåsvik named Törnqvist. Here he attended school, using the surname of his foster parents (a planned adoption of the boy never came to pass). On 26 April 1910 he emigrated to North America and was last heard from in 1915, when he was stationed aboard a U.S.Coast Guard vessel and was about to marry a Norwegian woman named Hanna Rasmussen. His address at that time was - Oscar Fredrik Tornqvist, U.S.C.G. Woodbury, Portland, ME.

2. Eva Anderson, in the Directory of Swedish Nobility (Adelskalendern) spelled Andrewsén, of Ramsey County, MN, was married in St.Paul, MN 7 Nov. 1870 to Baron Henrik Emil August Liljencrantz, a physician from Milwaukee, WI. The marriage certificate does not mention her background but when she died in Oakland, CA 10 Nov. 1930 she was listed in the death certificate as having been born in Sweden 10 March 1846. Her husband, who was born in Ängelholm 11 Sept. 1847, was killed in an automobile accident in Oakland 9 Oct. 1936. In his death certificate his wife was named the late Eva Johnson Liljencrantz, but in the death certificate of the son Tod, his mother is named Eva Salstrom of Sweden. These statements do not check out and leave one with a puzzled impression. Can anyone clarify who the wife of Liljencrantz in reality was? Information can be sent to Pontus Möller, Nybodagatan 5, 171 42 Solna, Sweden.
