Early Swedish Families in Vasa, Goodhue Co., MN

Nils William Olsson

Of the many Swedish-Americans who have distinguished themselves in charting the story of the Swedes in America, there is one name, that stands out above the rest, namely that of Erik Norelius (1833-1916), who arrived in the United States as a poor immigrant student in 1850 and who ultimately rose to become the president of the Augustana Synod, serving the denomination at two separate times, 1874-1881 and again 1899-1911.

Erik Norelius was not only a prominent Lutheran clergyman and administrator, but he also led an early immigrant people in every phase of its spiritual, educational, cultural and social development. He thus helped to found Carver Academy in Minnesota in 1862, the forerunner of Gustavus Adolphus College in St. Peter, MN. He organized a children's home in Vasa, MN and served as editor of a number of secular and religious publications, notably Hemlandet 1859-1862; Minnesota-Posten 1857-1858 and Augustana, the official organ of the Augustana Synod.

But it was in the field of history that his name probably will be remembered long after his other accomplishments are forgotten. In 1890 he published the first volume of his incomparable De svenska luterska församlingarnas och svenskarnes historia i Amerika. After a quarter of a century he published the second volume in 1915, the year before he died<sup>1</sup>

Thanks to Dr. Conrad Bergendoff of Rock Island, IL we today have an English version of this very meaty and well-documented story of the Augustana Synod and the Swedish settlements in the United States. Published in 1984 by the Augustana Historical Society, Dr. Bergendoff has selected the most important chapters from the first volume, giving the book the title Swedish Settlements 1845-1860.<sup>2</sup>

It is in this volume that we perceive Norelius' intense interest in the individual immigrant. He notes the names of the early arrivals in each settlement, the year of arrival in the U.S., and often their birth place in Sweden. These notations are a valuable source of information of the first wave of immigrants, particularly those who arrived in this country before the Civil War.

While Norelius has been appreciated as a church historian for a long time, it is not common knowledge that he also was deeply interested in family history, which obviously comes through in his historical writings. It is, however, in an obscure volume, which he wrote to mark the fiftieth anniversary of the Swedish Lutheran Church in the Vasa settlement in Goodhue County, MN in 1905, entitled Vasa Illustrata<sup>3</sup> that he demonstrates his intense interest in genealogy and its place in social history.

Vasa Illustrata is a unique volume, of which the first section contains a total of 182 pages of illustrations of the early Swedish settlers in Vasa. The second section is a brief history of the Vasa settlement, but in this story, Norelius has included a special chapter, which he calls "The People and the Families of Vasa" (pp. 223-241). He prefaces this chapter with the following introduction, which is herewith reproduced, in an English translation:

"Interesting as it is to describe the general history of Vasa, it is certain that the people and the families of Vasa constitute the most interesting aspect of the area's history. Many photographs of former and present-day Vasa citizens have been collected and presented in this volume. Even if some of the old portraits are of poor quality, and sometimes do not look like the people they are supposed to represent, one can nevertheless become acquainted with the facial features of the old pioneers and it is quite interesting to compare the facial characteristics with those of their descendants living today.

Since space will not allow me to write biographies of every individual, even though I should make them brief, except in a few instances and for obvious reasons, I have decided that the best purpose would be served by gathering all these individuals into family groups. In our rural settlements these family groups are easier to recognize than in the cities. The remarkable thing to note is how long-lived they are. Many persons are rather indifferent to the registration of these families, and some are even opposed to the idea, saying that they believe that it is undemocratic to evince interest in one's genealogy. This is erroneous, since families, as well as nations have a purpose for their existence. The genealogical tables in the Holy Bible may seem dull and uninteresting, but how important are they not for all of us. Even here in democratic America, where no orders of nobility are recognized, people are beginning, more and more, to pay attention to their background and their genealogies. The Swedish descendants are going to do the same thing, and I do not doubt for a moment, if the world remains, that those people who in the future will descend from the people of Vasa, will be very thankful for the material I am presenting here in dealing with the families of Vasa."<sup>4</sup>

So much for Norelius' introduction and his vision of the future given almost a century ago. In the list of Vasa families which Norelius presents, I have taken the liberty of listing them in the same order as Norelius, that is to say in the chronological order, as they arrived in Vasa. I have, however, taken the liberty of editing the material, shortening it occasionally from the original version, but including all the pertinent material in order to show the family ties and the genealogical connections <sup>5</sup>

The Nymö Clan

This family came from Nymö, a parish in Kristianstad län, annexed to the parish of Fjälkinge. The best known of this family in America and here in Vasa, and now residing in Red Wing, MN, is Sven Olsson.<sup>6</sup> He, his father Ola Nilsson and grandfather, Nils Nilsson, were all born in Nymö, but Ola Nilsson moved to Trolle-Ljungby Parish (Krist.), where he died at a croft named Vejle. Sven Olsson's mother, Kerstin Svendsdotter, born in Trolle-Ljungby, lived until March 1905 and became 98 years old. This clan also includes Pehr O. Olsson,<sup>7</sup> now deceased, a brother of Sven Olsson. His children were Nils, Olof, Mathilda, Sven Alfred, Esther and grandchildren. Additionally there was a sister, Margareta Olsdotter, married to Ola Andersson, both now dead. Their children - Karna, Anders, Martha, Carl, Ola and Johanna, were all born in Kiaby Parish (Krist.), while the youngest - Nils Alex and Selma, were born in Vasa.

This family also includes Eric Pehrsson in Cannon Falls, MN and his children - Jöns Pehrsson and Per Truedsson and their children in the Spring Creek rote or ward; as well as Sven Johnsson's wife, Pernilla Pehrsdotter in the Church rote.

Sven Olsson came to America and to Vasa 1855 in the company of his first wife, Karna Andersdotter, and his daughter Martha. The family expanded with the births of Elna, Anders and Olof. His second wife was Anna Brita Berndtsdotter of the Sunvåra clan from Halland. In this marriage there were ten children, of which some have died. Of his fourteen living children, seven are now living in Minnesota and seven in Idaho and Washington. At the time his mother died, she had 107 descendants, of which 80 resided in the U.S.

Frenne-Thorsson Clan

This family is represented in America and in Vasa by Trued Granville Pearson, his children and his siblings. Pearson was born in Stoby Parish (Krist.) 1 July 1827 and arrived in the U.S 1851 and to Vasa in November 1855. The first few years he spent in Knoxville and Galesburg, both in Illinois, where the Americans gave him the name of Granville, which name the family adopted. On 6 March 1854 he married Hanna Månsson, born in Önnestad Parish (Krist.) 27 May 1837, who arrived in the U.S. 1852. They have had seven children of which two have died.

Those still alive are - Clara Rosamunda, who married Henry Miller of Milwaukee, Agnes Elizabeth, who married J. Ekblad of Lindsborg, KS, Wilhelm Anton, professor at Yale University, Hanna Delina, who married J. Andersson of Lindsborg, KS and Esther Evangelina. Granville Pearson has a brother in the U.S., Ola P. Pearson, and a sister, Mrs. Agnes Charlson.

Granville Pearson's genealogy is as follows: his father was Pehr Olsson, born in Stoby Parish 1771 and died 1847. His paternal grandfather was Ola Paulsson and his great grandfather was Paul Nilsson, both born in Stoby. His mother was Karna Truedsdotter from Ignaberga Parish (Krist.). His maternal grandfather was Trued Andersson from Ballingslöv in Stoby Parish. His maternal grandmother was Bengta Frennesdotter, whose father, Frenne Thorsson was a member of the Swedish Parliament in the reign of Fredrik I. Other members on the Karna Truedsdotter's side are the present member of the Swedish Parliament, Ola Bosson Olsson, and the dean of Bedinge Parish (Malm.), Trued Bosson.

Bengt Anders Clan

This family group, which is represented in Vasa by Bengt Andersson<sup>8</sup> in the Skåne rote, who died in 1904, and was born in Trolle-Ljungby Parish (Krist). 3 Nov. 1829. His father was Anders Bengtsson, probably born in the same parish. His mother was Ingeborg Gabrielsdotter from Småland, but it is not known from which parish. His sister was named Nilla, married to Anders Jeppsson. His wife was Elna Larsdotter, born in Fjälkestad Parish (Krist.) 1825 and died in Vasa 1899. They were married in Sweden and arrived in the U.S and Vasa 1855. They had the following children -

Ingrid, married Pehr Waldemar Petersson from Fjälkestad, who on his mother's side, was related to Ingrid's mother.

Bengta, married Per Gustaf Andersson, born in Dalhem Parish (Älvs.).

Alfred, died 1900, married Anna Brita Back from Värö Parish (Hall.). They had children.

Anna, married Sven Ackerson of the Färlöv Clan.

Esther, married John B. Back, born in Värö Parish.

Mattsson Clan

Hans Mattson, the well-known colonel, and the founder of the Vasa settlement, was born in Önnestad Parish 23 Dec. 1832, the son of Matts Mattsson and his wife Ilgena (Elna) Larsdotter. He died 5 March 1893. He was married to Kersti Persdotter from Ballingslöv in Stoby, who died 1911.

According to Hans Mattsson, the place in Sweden, where his family had its origin was Ivö Parish (Krist.), but later the family established itself in Fjälkinge Parish, where the original farm was occupied by Lars Hansson and his wife in 1868, parents of the clergyman in Trolle-Ljungby, N. Fjellander, Another son of Lars Hansson was Hans Larsson, who died in 1869, just as he was about to emigrate. His family did leave Sweden and settled in Kandiyohi Co., MN. Matts Mattsson, Hans' father, after having farmed in Önnestad for several years, emigrated to the United States 1852 with his son Lars. These people are all dead now, but have many descendants, both here in America and in Sweden.

Several branches of the family may be found in Minnesota. Among these are Pehr Mattsson from Oppmanna Parish (Krist.) and his wife, Sissa Mattsdotter from Vånga Parish (Krist.). He was born 1816 and she 1817. Both arrived in the U.S. 1854 and settled in Chisago Co., MN. They moved to Vasa 1863. Both are now dead and the children are scattered in many directions. Only one branch of the family is left in Vasa - Mrs. Sissa Lindquist, born in Oppmanna 1838, who arrived in this country with her parents and then married Truls Lindquist, born in Örkened Parish (Krist.) 1829 and arrived in the U.S. 1852. Their children are - Cecilia, Theodore, Anna, Clara and Tina Bernhardina. Of these only Theodore and Clara presently live in Vasa.

Other branches of the family are Masse, a soldier living in Ashland, WI; Karna or Kersti, married to Nils Petersson, a charter member of the Vasa church, who now lives in Hallock MN; Anna (Mrs. P.T. Lindholm), now married to U.W. Jenkins, residing in Alberta, Canada and Carl, who lives in Colorado. Another daughter of Pehr Mattsson is Mrs. Axel Youngren of River Falls, WI.

More distant members of the Mattsson clan are the brothers Ola Mattsson and Matts Mattsson, both of whom have lived in Vasa. The first of these moved to Kandiyohi Co., MN many years ago. Most of them are now dead. The latter moved to New Rockford, ND and has many descendants. Nils Mattsson and siblings in Eddy Co., ND as well as Mrs. Frank Eriksson of Goodhue Co., MN are also members of this family group.

Ryda Clan

Erik Andersson<sup>9</sup> from Småland, born in Västra Ryd Parish (Ög.) 1831, belongs to this family. He arrived in the U.S. 1850 and lived for a while in Jamestown, NY, before moving to Vasa in 1855. He married in Jamestown Helena Lovisa Petersdotter, born in Lönneberga Parish (Kalm.) 1825, who arrived in America already in 1848. Their two oldest children - Martha and Oscar D., were born in Jamestown, whereas the others - Frans Idoff, Lovisa, Emma, Esther, Theodore and Minnie were born in Vasa. None of the children now live in Vasa, except Martha, who is married to Gustaf Larson, who belongs to the Mjälldrunga Clan. Lovisa, Esther and Minnie are now dead, but Oscar is an attorney in Red Wing, MN and the others are scattered about.

The Sundell family residing in the Småland rote as well as in Red Wing belong to this clan, but it has not been possible to research this group.

The Westersson Group

In 1854 three brothers emigrated from Ivetofta Parish (Krist.) with the name Westersson - namely Nils, Lars and Anders. They all settled in Vasa.

Nils,<sup>10</sup> born 1819, married Sissa Jacobsdotter, born in Vånga Parish 1816. Both died in Vasa 1905. Of their children, three were born in Vånga - Per, Johan and Annette. The others - Svante Wilhelm, Edwin and Selma, were born in Vasa. Per, Johan and Edwin reside in Vasa.

Lars,<sup>11</sup> born 1821, married Bengta Nilsdotter, born in Källna Parish (Krist.) 1829. Both are now dead. They had many children, most of them now deceased. Their oldest son, August, lives in Welch, MN and a daughter lives in Cannon Falls. Oddly enough, both of these persons are Catholics, doubtless due to the influence of their marriages.

Anders,<sup>12</sup> born 1824, married Anna Robertson, born 1846, and a member of the Katslösa Clan. Of their children, August Wilhelm teaches high school in Minneapolis; the others are Oscar Anton, Hanna Maria, Agnes and Alice. The old couple still resides in the Whitestone rote.

P.T.Lindholm and his children belong to this family. After having taught at Gustavus Adolphus College and later at Bethany College in Lindsborg, KS, Lindholm was elected county treasurer of McPherson, KS. He died in McPherson and is buried in Lindsborg,

The Karlskoga Family

This family goes back to the chartering of the parish in 1854, with the arrival of Carl Carlsson<sup>13</sup> and his wife Lovisa Petersdotter from Karlskoga Parish (Öre.) Doubtless they had large families in their native Karlskoga, but I have been unable to trace their genealogical lines. Prof O. Olsson is said to have been related to Mrs. Carlsson, but I do not know how. Two of the sons are dead. However, one son is alive but has lived for many years in an asylum.

Mrs. Anna Bellin,<sup>14</sup> a sister of Carl Carlsson, and married to A.E.Bellin,<sup>15</sup> a coppersmith from Sweden, belongs to this family group. Bellin died in an accident on the road from Red Wing. The widow was born in Karlskoga 1816 and arrived in America 1857. She moved to Red Wing after the death of her husband together with her sons Carl Philip, Gustaf Erik and Nils August. Mrs. Bellin died many years ago.

The Vanneberga Clan

This family group takes its name from the village of Vanneberga in Trolle-Ljungby Parish. The ancestor of the American branch was Lars Pehrsson known as Lasse Pehrsson,<sup>16</sup> born 1797. His wife, Karna Pehrsson, was born 1801. They arrived in the United States and to Vasa 1856 and settled in the Skåne rote. Lasse lived until 1883, when he died at the age of 86 years, six months and eleven days. His wife died in 1885 at the age of 85. Their children were:

Nilla, born in Vanneberga 1824 and married to Swen Swensson,<sup>17</sup> born in the same village 1821. They came to America 1855. Both are now dead but left six children, all scattered far and wide - Karna, Bengta, Sven, Anna, Henry and Emelia. Henry still resides in Vasa.

Olu, born in Vanneberga 1827, married Lars Jönsson<sup>18</sup>, born in the same parish 1822. They arrived in 1856 and are both dead. Their children, all born in Vasa, were - Anna, Carrie and Johan. Olof still has the family farm.

Pehr Larsson,<sup>19</sup> born in Vanneberga 1831, arrived with his parents in 1856. He married Ingeborg Johnsson from Uhrland in Norway. They still reside in the Småland rote.

Ola Larsson,<sup>20</sup> also born in Vanneberga 1834, arrived in America 1855. He resided in Princeton, IL until 1861, when he enrolled in the Union Army, serving the entire war. After Gen. Sherman's capture of Atlanta, GA, he came to Vasa, where he married Hannah Nelson in 1866. She was the daughter of Abraham Nelson. They had the following children - Edward, Arthur, Nancy, Willie, Selma and Frank. The wife is now deceased.

Karna arrived with her parents from Sweden, married Gissel Mårtensson of Red Wing and died at an early age.

Bengta, born in Vanneberga 1839, arrived in America with her family 1856 and married Lars Mattsson.<sup>21</sup> The couple moved to the Red River Valley, about ten miles from Hallock, MN. Both are now dead, Their children are - Hilma, Henry, Arthur and possibly others.

Mrs. Matthes Petersson, née Elna Pehrsson, born in Vanneberga 1833, also belongs to this family. She arrived in this country 1855, married in Red Wing 1860 Matthes Pehrsson from Nymö Parish (Krist.). He served in the Civil War and is now dead. The widow still resides in Cannon Falls. Their son Peter is now deceased. The three daughters were - Emma, married to N.C. Andersson from Malmöhus län; Betsy Kate and Hilma Amanda.

The Algutsboda Family

The oldest member of this family, Mrs. Gustaf Carlsson came to the U.S. 1854. She was born in Algutsboda Parish (Kron.) 1822 and was married to Gustaf Carlsson,<sup>22</sup> born in Ekeberga Parish (Kron.) 1818. His father, Carl Magnusson, was born in the same parish 1781 and died there 1826. Gustaf Carlsson settled in Algutsboda, however, and that is the reason we shall name his family after that parish. Carlsson settled in the Småland rote, but later moved to Red Wing, where his widow is still residing at the age of 83.

Their children were - Frans August, born 1843, a soldier in the Civil War; Alfred, born 1845; Aron, born 1850, all in Algutsboda. The other children, born in America, were - Carl Harris, Johan Ludvig, Nancy and Nannie. Aron lives in Featherstone, Goodhue Co., with his wife Stina Cajsa Ernberg, with whom he has six children and several grandchildren. The other siblings live in Red Wing and other places with their families.

Another member of this family is Samuel Johnsson, brother of Mrs. Gustaf Carlsson. He was born in Algutsboda 1825, married Stina Lisa Petersdotter and has with her nine children, of which most now are deceased. The family moved to Mist {?}, OR 1888. The husband is now dead.

The Tubbamåla Clan

According to reports, this family is considerably reduced in Sweden, whereas it is quite large in the United States, particularly in Vasa, St. Peter and other places in this state. In this country it could also be named the Turner Clan, but the Tubbamåla name is more inclusive. The family originates in the parishes of Blädinge and Vislanda in the county of Kronoberg, virtually at the very center of Småland. Vislanda reminds us of old man Wiesel, of Samuel Ödman, of Spånhult and Pehr Wieselgren.

In 1853 Sven Johannesson,<sup>23</sup> 23 years old, emigrated to the U.S. from Tubbamåla in Vislanda Parish. He remained in Geneva, IL until 1856, when he arrived that spring in Vasa. In Illinois he had assumed the name of Turner, understandably enough, inasmuch as it was quite difficult to sort out all of the Johnssons who had arrived from Sweden. In Geneva he had also married Elin Carlsson from Rydaholm Parish (Jön.). He settled on Sec. 24 in Vasa, where all of his neighbors were from Tubbamåla.

Ten years later, or in 1863, two older brothers, Samuel<sup>24</sup> and Olof,<sup>25</sup> also emigrated with their families and came to Vasa 1866. They were followed by a sister, Catharina Johannesdotter, married to Jon Pehrsson<sup>26</sup> from Vislanda. All of these siblings, as well as those who remained in Sweden were as follows:

Peter stayed in Sweden and is now deceased, but ten of his children came to America and reside in St. Peter, St. Paul, MN, as well as other places.

Martha is represented in Vasa by her daughter, Mrs. M. Hyllengren and her children.

Samuel, born 1819, together with his wife, Stina Petersdotter, born in Skatelöv Parish (Kron.) 1818, now constitute the oldest couple living here in Vasa. Their children are - Ingrid, married to O. N. Olsson from Trolle-Ljungby Parish; Signild, married to Frans August Carlsson of Red Wing and Anna, married to Håkan Lundell from Härlunda Parish (Kron.). They reside here in the Småland rote. Eva is married to P. Johan Lundquist from Skatelöv, a sheriff, and Martha, now living in Welch, MN with her son Johannes, who operates the family farm.

Olof Turner, born 1825, now a widower, resides with his daughter and son-in-law, Ingrid and P. N. Quist. Other children are - Stina, now dead; his daughter's son, Carl Idoff, married to Mary Krantz of Goodhue Co., MN and Johan Magnus, now residing in St. Peter, MN.

Catharina, now Mrs. John Pehrsson, was born 1821, married to Jon Pehrsson of Vislanda. Both are now dead. Their children are - Sven, married to Sigrid Kullberg; Aron, married to Emma Andersson; Anders Johan, Gumme and Ingegerd - all married and residing in the area of the parish.

Sven Turner is the youngest of the clan and together with his wife Elin, represent the early pioneers of Vasa. They had a total of 13 children, all born in Vasa. Many of these are now deceased, but Ida, born 1856, is now Mrs. Thorsell, residing in St. Paul and the youngest, Julia Aurora, born 1877. Wilhelm Leonard, born 1872, married Maria Josefina Lundquist, is the only one of the children, who still remains in Vasa. Of the remaining children, still living, most of them have moved to the State of Washington.

Another member of the family is Olof Månsson Turnblad,<sup>27</sup> born in Vislanda 1811 and his wife, Ingrid Månsdotter, born in the same parish 1816. They arrived in America 1868 and came from Ryssby Parish (Kron.). They are now all gone, Olof in 1889 and Ingrid in 1888. They had two sons - Magnus and Sven Johan. The latter became the well-known publisher of Svenska Amerikanska Posten in Minneapolis. He was born in Tubbamåla 7 Oct. 1860 and died in Minneapolis 1933. Sven Johan's brother, Magnus, was born in Tubbamåla 28 Jan. 1858 and followed his brother to Minneapolis, where he became editor of his brother's newspaper.

In a previous marriage Olof Månsson Turnblad had a son, Peter Olsson Turnblad<sup>28</sup> as well as a daughter, Ingrid Olofsdotter, married to J.M. Hyllengren.<sup>29</sup>

Others in this family are Magnus Jönsson Turnquist<sup>30</sup> and his wife, Stina Svensdotter. They arrived in America 1869 from Vislanda, but were born in Västra Torsås Parish (Kron.), he in 1828, she in 1823. Both are now deceased. Their children still living in Vasa are - Blenda, married to J.A. Petersson from Flisby Parish (Jön.) with three children and Carrie Turnquist, who still remains in the old family home. These sisters are both born in Vislanda. Peter Olsson, their half-brother in their mother's first marriage, also belongs to this group.

Furthermore, another member of this clan is Jonas Gustaf Rydén. He was born in Ryssby 1845 and his wife, Anna Catharina Olofsdotter, was born in Vislanda 1846. The Ekblad<sup>31</sup> family in Spring Creek, Goodhue Co., also belongs to this family group.

The Färlöv Family

This family is represented by Nils P. Ofelt,<sup>32</sup> born in the village of Åby in Färlöv Parish (Krist.), who emigrated to America 1852. His father, Per Nilsson, was born in Färlöv, but his paternal grandfather, Nils Nilsson, came from Gärd Hundred in the county of Kristianstad. His mother, Kersti Jönsdotter, also was born in Åby.

Nils P. Ofelt's wife was Pernilla Månsson, born in Färlöv 1846 and arrived in the United States with her parents, Ola Månsson and Bengta Eskilsdotter in 1857. Their children, who are still living, are - Clara, married in Spokane, WA; Emma, Nathan, postmaster in Vasa; Alma, Hilda Paulina, David and Garfield.

Ola Månsson<sup>33</sup> and his family first settled in Meeker Co., MN but in 1862 the Sioux Indians drove them out and they resettled in Vasa. The old folks are gone and of the nine children, in addition to Mrs. N.P. Ofelt, the following are residing in Vasa - Nils, Anna, Christina and Mathilda.

Other members of this family are - J.P. Ofelt, a brother of N.P. Ofelt, mentioned earlier as well as Sven Ackerson, his children and his brothers. His father was Åke Sonesson, who was born 1816 and the mother was Elna Persdotter. The paternal grandfather Per Persson, died in Sweden 1860 at the age of 77. The original farm in Sweden was the Halla farm in Ullstorp, Önnestad Parish (Krist.).

The Sunvåra Clan

This family has its origin in Värö Parish (Hall.), from which area many immigrants came to Vasa. Many are related to each other. The American pioneer here is Carl Johansson, born in the village of Sunvära in Värö Parish 1816, but later moved to Bua, also in Värö, where he in 1836 married I. Christensson. In 1854 he emigrated to America with his family and after a short stay in Chicago and La Crosse, WI, arrived here in Vasa 1856. He served as postmaster in Vasa 1864-1866. In his later years he and his wife moved to Bancroft, IA, where they died. Most of the children are now gone. The oldest daughter, Anna Christina, born in Bua, Värö 1837 and married to Anders Månsson from the same parish, left many descendants, many of whom live in Minnesota, North Dakota and the State of Washington

Anders Månsson, mentioned above, was killed by a kick from a horse, forcing the widow, Anna Christina, to bring up her family alone. She married for the second time Per Persson of the Tosteberga Clan and now resides in Vasa. Except for a few nieces and nephews living in Iowa and elsewhere, other members of this family are Berndt Christensson and his descendants, Andrew Carlsson from Värö with family and others.

The Kärda Family

Bengt Nilsson<sup>34</sup> was born in Kärda Parish (Jön.) 18 Jan. 1798. We know practically nothing concerning his parents. Bengt was the youngest of four siblings. A sister, Stina, was married to a man named Bengt from Södratorp (?) and were the parents of Gustaf Bengtsson in Vasa and Mrs. Gustaf Johnsson of Red Wing. In 1829 he married Martha Stina Pettersdotter, born in Kärda, the daughter of Per Jönsson and his wife. The latter's maternal grandfather was known as "Läsare-Bengt" because he knew his Holy Bible by heart. Martha's sister Brita became the mother of the Molin families who reside in Cannon Falls, MN. Bengt Nilsson and his wife settled in a place called Björsgård in Kärda, where their five children were born - Anders, Gustava, Inga Christina, Salomon and Charlotta. In 1854 the family emigrated, going first to St. Charles, IL, but two years later came to Vasa. Here the family resided, Anders dying young, Gustava marrying P.O. Tilderquist,<sup>35</sup> born in Södra Rörum Parish (Malm.). Both of these are now dead. Inga Christina, the daughter, was married to Carl Berggren from Gränna and this couple still resides in this general area. The daughter Charlotta married G.D. Johnsson and Salomon married Kate Engberg of the Vendlas Clan. Salomon became known as "the Good Samaritan" losing his life in a drowning accident, trying to save E.C. Hedberg 6 July 1888 in Belle Creek. He left a widow and four children. This family has many descendants through the Tilderquists, the Berggrens and the Johnssons.

The Brunstorp Clan

This family group takes its name from Lars Brun,<sup>36</sup> a soldier in the Royal Swedish Älvsborg Regiment, who resided in a soldier's croft named Brunstorp in Hällstad Parish (Älvs.). Here the following sons were born - Johan Lid, Jonas Gull,<sup>37</sup> Sven Tim, Anders Larsson,<sup>38</sup> Lars Frenn<sup>39</sup> and Carl Larsson. The family moved to Södra Ving Parish (Älvs.) fairly early, where they resided in a croft on the estate of Säby. Four of the sons became soldiers - Lid, Gull, Tim and Frenn. Lid remained in Sweden, while the remainder emigrated to the U.S. Tim and Frenn arrived in the U.S. 1852, staying first in St. Charles and Geneva, IL. Tim remained there with his wife until both of them died. His children, grandchildren and great grandchildren can be found in this area, farther northwest as well as in Illinois. Tim probably received his surname from the parish of Timmele, next door to Södra Ving. Frenn's surname probably was adopted from the village of Frennarp in Timmele. Frenn's wife was Stina Svensdotter, who came from Liared Parish (Älvs.) and their children, all born in Timmele were - Per Johan<sup>40</sup> Anders Joseph<sup>41</sup> and Carl August. The family moved to Vasa from Geneva, IL 1864 and settled in the township of Featherstone in Goodhue Co. The old folks are gone. Per Johan married Christina Maria Carlsdotter, born in Tuna Parish (Kalm.). They have many descendants.

Carl August Frenn, the youngest of the sons, married Mary Tunberg from Tuna Parish (Kalm.). Of their children Evald is now deceased.

Anders Joseph Frenn married Sofia Johnsson from Jonsered in Lerum Parish (Älvs.) and the couple now resides in Red Wing.

Jonas Gull, the oldest of the soldier sons, was born in Hällstad Parish 1805 and was married to Annika Andersdotter from Södra Ving Parish. He arrived in the U.S., 1866 with part of his family, settling in Goodhue Co. Their children were - Svante, now deceased; Johan Levin and Claes August, all married with families. The daughters who remain in Goodhue Co. are - Mrs. John Erickson, a widow; Mrs. Nils Swensson, a widow and Mrs. Peter Johnsson, married to Peter Johnsson from Algutsboda Parish (Kron.). The senior Gulls are gone, but half of the Goodhue Parish are descendants of his.

Anders Larsson, a brother, was born 1813 and came to America 1852, settling at first in Red Wing, MN, later moving to Spring Creek Township in Goodhue Co., where both he and his wife died. Mrs. Erik Johnsson and her children represent this branch of this huge clan.

Carl Larsson, another brother, and a half-brother of Anders Larsson, has resided in Burlington, IA, but I have no information concerning his family.

The Tännäs Family

This family originates in Tännäs Parish (Jämt.) and is represented by three families who came to Vasa. Erik Jonasson<sup>42</sup> was born in Storsjö Parish (Jämt.) 1819; Jöns Zakrisson<sup>43</sup> was born in Tännäs in 1815, where Olof Hansson also was born. All are related to each other by marriage. Mrs. Jonasson and Mrs. Zakrisson were sisters and Mrs. Hansson was their cousin, all from Tännäs. The two sisters' father was Pehr Olsson,<sup>44</sup> born in 1793 and his wife, Gölin Jonsdotter, also born in Tännäs 1794. They arrived in America 1857. All are now gone, except Märet Pehrsson, Erik Jonasson's widow. But there are a number of descendants living in Vasa today.

Related to the above persons were several who came from Hede Parish (Jämt.), particularly those who emigrated from the Funäs Valley in Tännäs. Among these is Jon Månsson,<sup>45</sup> born 1801, and his wife, Britta Jansdotter, born in Långå, Hede Parish 1804. He died in 1879 and she in 1901, reaching the age of 97, the oldest person to have died in Vasa. This family is represented by the sons, Jon Månsson, Jr., and his children - Måns Månsson and his children; the daughters - Mrs. Hagman<sup>46</sup> and Mrs. Abraham Petersson, their children and their grandchildren.

Others belonging to this clan are Olof and Jonas Folin, etc.

The Bosgård Family

The most famous person in this family group is the Honorable John W. Petersson.<sup>47</sup> The family is so named since all of Petersson's ancestors came from Bosgård in the village of Stojby, Gårdsby Parish (Kron.). From here descendants have scattered to other parishes as well as to the United States. The earliest of Petersson's known ancestors was Pehr Jaensson, born 1709. His son was Jaen Pehrsson, born 1772. His son in turn was Peter Johansson, born in Långågården 1806. His son was John W. Petersson, born in Hackstorp, also in the same parish 1838. His son Arthur was born in Vasa 1871.

When John W. Petersson was five years old, the family moved to Prästtorp in Öjaby Parish (Kron.) and resided there until 1856 when they moved to the United States. His mother, Anna Lisa Petersson, was born in Södra Sandsjö Parish (Kron.) 1809, and died in Vasa 1885 at the age of 75. Her husband, Peter Johansson,<sup>48</sup> died in 1896, almost 90 years old. When the family arrived from Sweden, they settled first in Chisago County, but after the Civil War, in which John W. Petersson served in the Minnesota Sixth Infantry, he bought a farm in Vasa and married there in 1868 Karin Ersdotter, daughter of Erik Jonasson of the Tännäs Clan. They had the following children - Mary Elizabeth, married to Wilhelm Tilderquist of Duluth, MN; Arthur Wilhelm, residing in Vasa; Edith Amalia, also resident of Vasa; Almer George, a dentist in Duluth and Emelia Josefina, remaining in the family home in Vasa.

John W. Petersson served in the Minnesota Senate on two occasions - 1873-1874 and 1891-1893. He also served in the House in 1885.

His sisters were - Sara Magnusson, now deceased; Maria Håkansson, a widow and Anna Sofia Larsson, married to Andrew Larsson.

The Borén family in Stillwater, MN also belongs to this clan.

The Holm Family

This family had its origin in Säby Parish (Jön.). The father, Gustaf Holm,<sup>49</sup> was born 1814 and his wife, Hedda Charlotta Andersson, born 1823, arrived with some of their children 1868, since a few of them had arrived the previous year. In addition to the old couple, the family consisted of August Wilhelm, married to Johanna Johnsson, also from Säby, both now deceased. Other children were - Frans Johan Filemon Holm, widower; Oscar Fredrik Holm,<sup>50</sup> married in Vasa to Karna Andersson of the Nymö Clan; Carl G. Holm, unmarried; Anton Holm, married and residing in the State of Oregon; Emma Christina Holm and the son Otto Holm, who together with his parents died in the storm of 1879.

The Mjälldrunga Family

This family originates with Lars Jonsson, married to Annika Andersdotter, and the owner of a farm named Torp in Mjälldrunga Parish (Älvs.). Their youngest son, Johannes Larsson,<sup>51</sup> born in Torp 24 Sept. 1806, married Cajsa Jonasdotter, born in Tokarp in the same parish 1807. Her parents were Jonas Carlsson and Anna Maria Eliasdotter. Johannes Larsson's children, all born in Torp were - Jonas Larsson, born 1829, Anders, born 1843, Gustaf, born 1849, Johanna, born 1835 and Maria, born 1838. The family arrived in America 1860 and settled first in Afton, MN. In the spring of 1867 they moved to Vasa, settling in the Göta rote. The old folks died, she in 1884, almost 77 years old and he in 1886, aged 79 years and six months.

Maria was married to Jöns Holmgren<sup>52</sup> from Vinslöv Parish (Krist.), who died 1872 from an illness contracted in the Civil War.

Gustaf married Martha Andersson<sup>54</sup> of the Ryda Family and their children are - Richard Laurence, Edna Victoria, Esther Amelia, Alice Evangeline and Ernst Oscar. The family resides in Featherstone Township of Goodhue Co.

The Nyäng Clan

The person who represents this family in America is Carl Johan Petersson, residing in Göta rote in Featherstone Township. He arrived in America 1869 from Södra Sandsjö Parish (Kron.), but was born in Tolvstorp, Hovmantorp Parish (Kron.). His father was Peter Zakrisson, whose father in turn was known as "Jösse in Mysinge", who moved to Gotland with his wife and seven children, leaving Zakris in Småland to carry on his family. Petersson is more proud of his mother's family. She was Catharina Jonasdatter from Ljuder Parish (Kron.) but her mother Elin in turn was from Nyäng in Hovmantorp. Elin had a sister married to Peter Petersson, known as "Per in Nyäng", a juryman in the county assizes. Per Holm, the schoolteacher in Linneryd Parish (Kron.) also belonged to this family. Petersson married 1854 Christina Petersdotter, a widow from Södra Sandsjö, who in a previous marriage had had four children. His own children were - Johan August and Catharina Charlotta, both born in Södra Sandsjö. The latter was married to Johan Gustaf Carlén from Brandstorp Parish (Skar.) and had with him no less than nine children.

Others that belong to this clan are Frank Samuelsson's<sup>55</sup> children, among them Oscar Samuelsson, who resides in Vasa and Mrs. John Bodin and others in St. Paul, MN. Additionally there are also the children of John Peterson,

The Lundberg Family

Joseph A. Lundberg<sup>56</sup> represents this family in Vasa. He was born in Nennesmo, Reftele Parish (Jön.) 22 Dec. 1843. His father, Anders Larsson, born 1810 and his grandfather, Lars Andersson, were born in the same village. Lundberg married Emma Christina Carlsdotter, born in Ekenäs, Ryssby Parish (Kron.) 5 April 1852, the daughter of Carl Johan Andersson, born on the same farm 1811, as well as her grandfather, Anders Carlsson.

The Lundbergs came to America 1871. Their children were - Ida Amanda, Carl Robert, Lorens Sigfrid and Florence Olivia, all born in Featherstone Township in Goodhue Co.

The Grödbby Clan

Per Persson<sup>57</sup> in the Norrbotten rote here in Vasa hails from the village of Grödbby in Ivetofta Parish (Krist.), where he was born 22 Oct. 1831, the son of Per Åkesson. His grandfather was Åke Månsson, a farm owner in the village.

Per Persson's mother was Elsa Bengtsdotter, born near Bäckaskog in Kiaby Parish (Krist.), but her mother in turn came from Grödbby. Per Persson married Elsa Nilsson in 1857 and their children, all born in Sweden, were - Per, Bonde and Bengta. The family moved to the U.S. in 1869, where an additional three children were born - Ingrid, Anna Nelly and Carl Emil. Per Persson has five siblings - Åke Persson, who lives in Sweden; Nils Persson, a half-brother, who resides in Hallock, MN and his half-sister, Per Nilsson's wife who resides in the Göta rote here in Vasa.

Others related to this family are the Ingemans, who reside in the Church rote.

The Cederholm Clan

Samuel Cederholm<sup>58</sup> who resides in the Norrbotten rote in the Cannon Falls area was born on the estate of Löberöd in Hammarlunda Parish (Malm.) 1837. His father was Jöns Olsson and his grandfather was Ola Andersson. In 1865 he emigrated to America, coming to Vasa, where he looked up his paternal uncle, Nils Olsson, who had come to the U.S. in 1853 and had married Karna Nilsson from Vinslöv Parish (Krist.). Cederholm settled in Vasa, married Bengta Larsdotter, a niece of Nils Olsson. She is now dead but the couple had the following children - Carin Amanda, married to William Ash of St. Vincent, MN; Ulrika Eleonora and Ida Lovisa, both residing with their father. His uncle, Nils Olsson is now deceased, as is his wife. They had a daughter, Maria, who married Jöns Persson from Oppmanna Parish (Krist.).

There are many more families which should be listed, but time and space do not allow it. There are for instance in the Norrbotten rote - the Youngberg,<sup>59</sup> Kullberg<sup>60</sup> and Dädesjö<sup>61</sup> families. In Västerbotten rote we have the Prinka family, descended from Sven Larsson Prinka from Emmislöv Parish (Krist.), who through marriage is related to Otto and Ola Larsson of the Norrbotten rote as well as Nebraska. In the Småland rote we have the Hässleby Family, to which Anders P. Johnsson<sup>62</sup> from Hässleby Parish (Jön.) belongs. He arrived in America 1848, after his brothers Fredrik, Carl and Otto had arrived here in 1844, settling in a valley near Sugar Grove, PA, which today carries the name of Chandlers Valley but originally was known as Hessle Valley. This family also includes Dr. L.A. Johnston,<sup>63</sup> Lutheran pastor in Moline, IL. Anders P. Johnsson died already toward the end of 1879, leaving a widow and six children. The son-in-law, Per Bodelsson<sup>64</sup> from Ivetofta Parish, married to Hilma E. Johnsson, now has the old family farm.

We should also mention a Kisa Family from Kisa Parish (Ög.), representatives of which were in this country early. The Honorable J.A. Andersson and his family originate here as does Germund Johnsson<sup>65</sup> and others.

The families in Goodhue Co. should also be mentioned - C.J. Foss, P.G. Veber, J. Krantz, J. Erickson, Gull, N. Larson, Paul Nelson, Peter Johnson and others. Here is even a bit of the Vendlas Clan from Hassela Parish (Gävl.), whose genealogical lines go back to 1598.

It is interesting to note that Norelius was quite aware of his own lineage, going back to Finnish stock as early as 1598 and it is tempting to think that when Norelius mentions the Vendlas Clan, he is referring to his own family pedigree.

A check of the parish records of the Vasa Swedish Lutheran Church has turned up additional information on some of the persons mentioned by Norelius. This additional bit of information is contained in the foot notes below with references to VLC (Vasa Lutheran Church Records), microfilmed and available at the Swenson Swedish Immigration Research Center in Rock Island, IL. Other information has been gathered from various parish records on microfilm or microfiche available at the district archives in Sweden, abbreviated as follows:

GLA - Göteborgs Landsarkiv; LLA - Lunds Landsarkiv; ÖLA - Östersunds Landsarkiv; VLA - Vadstena Landsarkiv. The microfilmed Swedish parish records in the Family History Center in Salt Lake City have also been utilized.

Gustaf Bergström

Impulsive Emigrant

Ted Rosvall*

Gustaf Bergström was born on the Nolgården farm in Slöta Parish near Falköping 28 Aug. 1828, the younger surviving son of Petter Bergström (1789-1841), a farmer, and his wife Johanna Sandgren (1791-1861). His paternal grandfather was Johannes Bergström (1762-1816), who had been a master builder of churches and also a member of the Swedish Riksdag, representing one of the four estates - the farmers. His maternal grandfather was Isac Sandgren (1751-1820), a farmer and a glazier, residing at Enåsen in Falekvarna, also in Slöta.

Gustaf Bergström learned to be a tanner and as a young man he traveled widely in Sweden, first as an apprentice, and later as a journeyman. In 1849 we find him in the coastal city of Sundsvall in the northern part of Sweden but the same year he moved south to the small town of Hjo, on the western shore of Lake Vättern. The following year he moved to the parish of Kyrkefalla, where he leased a small tannery named Katrineberg. In the household examination rolls of the parish beginning in 1852 there is no mention of him, neither is he listed in the exit lists of Kyrkefalla nor the emigration lists in Göteborg.

There is, however, one source of information concerning the missing Bergström, namely in the person of Bror Johan Sandgren (1829-1917). He was a first cousin of Gustaf Bergström and had led a very eventful life. He had emigrated twice to the United States, first in 1848 and then in 1852, working as a machinist or engineer aboard various ships going to South America and Newfoundland. Later, having returned to Sweden, he had spent 25 years in Russia, where he had operated a number of boats and barges on the Volga River. He ran a wharf for repairs and was awarded a medal by the Russian Czar for his work. He wrote an account of his adventures up until 1862, creating thereby a manuscript consisting of no less than 113 large-size pages. It is a vivid and fascinating account of his travels and of his early life in general.

In 1852 he and his older brother, Thure Emanuel Sandgren (1817-1876), who had emigrated to the U.S. already two times, decided to return to the U.S. and it is in Bror Johan Sandgren's account that we find the following information concerning Gustaf Bergström, and here I will quote from the manuscript itself:

"As we were just about ready to take off, we had a visit from our cousin Bergström. He had been struck by such a violent fit of 'America fever' that we could in no way dissuade him. He insisted in accompanying us, that was all there was to it. The awkward thing about it was that he had recently become engaged and had established a tannery of his own, since he was a tanner. As was typical, he also lacked the necessary travel funds, and if he was to accompany us, he had to procure the necessary funding immediately. He returned home, pried loose a quantity of leather he had stored in his tannery, which he then pawned for the sum of 300 kronor. On the following day he reappeared, after having told his mother to proceed to make a brilliant affair with the leather.

We were now ready to travel, first of all to Göteborg, where we hoped to find passage on whatever vessel that was available. But now a barrier to our departure developed - Bergström did not possess a passport. Upon our arrival in Göteborg we found that a large American vessel was about to depart for Boston within a couple of days. There was also a possibility to travel to Hull, England aboard a steamship. We therefore decided that Bergström and I would travel to Hull, whereas Thure was to board the American ship. In order to help Bergström, Thure bought two tickets to Hull - one for me and the other for Bergström. We now departed aboard the steamship, while Thure remained behind. A half hour after the steamer had left port, Thure proceeded in great haste to the ticket office, saying dejectedly that he had missed the boat. He had arrived too late and now there remained nothing else for him to do but to board the American vessel. His passport and other things were in my possession, and of course I felt sorry that he was not on board the steamship. At the office the officials could only express their disappointment and felt sorry for Thure, who thus had missed his traveling companions through no fault of his. A new ticket was then purchased for passage on the American vessel, without any opposition from the authorities."

After this little trick, whereby it was possible for Gustaf Bergström to leave Sweden, using his cousin's identity papers, he and Johan Sandgren soon arrived in Hull, where they took a train to Liverpool.. Here they bought two second class tickets for travel aboard the Princeton. Here is an amusing passage from Johan Sandgren's memoirs which tells about the journey to the new land.

"In the vessel's second class were a great many wealthy farmers, who were leaving for America in order to buy land and settle there. Among the passengers were also a few rather attractive girls, whom I enjoyed conversing with a great deal during the journey. Their nationality was Scottish but the majority on board were English and Irish. Thus Bergström and I were the only Swedes on board. Since the remainder of the passengers in second class never had been to sea before, they were all seasick the first week and thus we had scarcely a glimpse of them. But since I was an experienced seafarer, I was always ready to give a helping hand to those who needed it, since any service from the vessel's staff was out of the question.

There were namely two young girls on board the ship aged about 18-19, who occupied the berth next to me. They were so weak from seasickness as well as from fear, that I felt sorry for them and attempted to cheer them up and help them. I thus volunteered to wait on them, if they so desired. They accepted my services and I remained with them the remainder of the journey, and became their darlings, as they expressed it. One of the girls was named Anny-Jane, the other was Caroline, but I have to admit that in my opinion Anny-Jane was the most pleasant of the two. I had a lot of fun with my traveling companion Bergström, telling him that Caroline was hopelessly in love with him. Since he did not understand a single English word, he became quite unhappy. He insisted that I should help him, but I turned everything around so that everything ended in laughter and mirth for the girls and for Bergström a great deal of chagrin ”.

The Princeton arrived in New York 25 Sept. 1852. The passenger manifest has been preserved and it shows that John Sandgren and Gustavus Bergstrom are listed together as numbers 441 and 442. Unfortunately it has been impossible to identify Anny-Jane and Caroline. Later on in his memoirs Johan Sandgren (who happens to be my great grandfather) tells how he four years later went to see Anny-Jane, who then was working in Elyria, OH, and how he also met her parents, who resided in the countryside not far from Elyria. The meeting did not work out too successfully, and thus they never married. As a curiosity, we note that Johan Sandgren, fifteen years later, living in the center of Russia, named his third daughter Annie-Jane Sandgren (1871-1888), a name appearing also in later generations.

Having arrived in New York, the cousins Johan Sandgren and Gustaf Bergström proceeded immediately to Philadelphia, where Johan had lived and worked earlier. His old landlady, Mrs. Brandt, welcomed him back and was willing to accept Gustaf Bergström as her boarder as well. Johan was to get his old job back as a machinist, and he was also able to procure a job as a tanner for his cousin. Evidently Gustaf Bergström lived on in Philadelphia for the next few years. Johan Sandgren traveled on and in 1857 we find him in Boston, where he had a job as a machinist or engineer aboard a tugboat named Huron. In 1858 his brother Thure arrived in Boston from California on his way to Sweden, in order to visit him, and in 1859 Thure suggested in a letter to Johan that he should take a vacation and come to Sweden and visit the family. Johan agreed, took a leave of absence from his position and arranged for his cousin, Gustaf to come to Boston in order to substitute for him. Since Johan never returned to America, it is possible that Gustaf continued to work as an engineer aboard the Huron or some other vessel.

This is the last clue we have regarding Gustaf. Family tradition, probably emanating from old letters now destroyed or lost, tells us that Gustaf Bergström married a Catholic girl, (could it have been Caroline?) and that he died in an accident on Cuba in the 1870s. Whether he was actually residing in Cuba, or was working on a ship which then lay in a harbor in Cuba, is not known.

Any information concerning Gustaf Bergström, his wife and family, would be very much appreciated. Incidentally - whatever became of Anny-Jane?

The Story of a Swedish Hussar and his Torp

(The article on Torp and Torpare in the September issue of SAG elicited many favorable comments from our readers. One of them, Frederic E. Pamp of Santa Ynez, CA., himself a descendant of a Swedish hussar, translated the following account of the life of a hussar and his hussar's torp, or croft in Småland in the 19th century. The original account appeared in Smålandsryttaren, a journal published by the Smålands Husarers Förening, consisting of those who are interested in the history of the Kungliga Smålands Husarregemente, and written by Birger Linde, who recalls his mother's reminiscences from those early days.)

On the ice of Lake Hjorten in Virserum Parish in Småland King Gustav Vasa once fought a decisive battle in the month of March 1543 against the troops of Nils Dacke, the revolutionary smålander. After this battle, the king wrote to the governor of Kalmar county and to the commander of Kronoberg castle near Växjö, ordering the deployment of Swedish troops to the villages of Småland. That order may with reason be seen as the founding document of the Småland Cavalry Regiment, known as the Hussars.

The groundwork of the organization of the Swedish military was to be laid later in the 1680s and 1690s, and this was to remain in force until 1901, when it was replaced by universal military service. The form of the organization was grounded in the old agricultural society. Officers and men lived on the land, officers in their residences, the hussars on their respective torp. Each larger farm formed or contributed to a squad or headquarters known as rusthåll. If the farms were small, they also shared in the defense responsibility. Each squad was responsible for setting aside a plot of land large enough to feed a cow and several sheep for each hussar. Farmers participating in setting up the detachment were also to build a dwelling 12 alnar (ells) long and seven to eight alnar wide (one aln = 60 centimeters) or the equivalent of approximately 24 feet long, together with a cowshed and necessary outhouses. When the hussar was away on maneuvers, the farm laborers would do the necessary work on the torp, while at the same time maintaining it, for the buildings had to be kept up in good condition. Building and maintenance were closely associated. The regiment itself bore the name of the province, in this case Småland, the companies or squadrons carried the name of the parish where they were located and the soldier or hussar was numbered by the squad or rusthåll in which he served, as for example No. 92 Björkmossa of the Staby Squadron.

For many years the Staby Squadron assembled and was dismissed at the Björkmossa Inn, owned and operated by my mother's, Signe Linde's parents, the Danielssons. The Staby Squadron consisted of 100 enlisted hussars, who all resided in their husartorp. There were also a few hussars who worked for wages. The Staby Squadron drew its manpower from the hundreds of Aspeland, Handbörd and Stranda and if memory serves me right, also a number of hussars from Kristdala and Misterhult parishes in the hundred of Tunalän.

In 1957 my mother, Signe Linde, wrote down her reminiscences from Björkmossa Inn in the 1890s.

“Within Virserum Parish there were five headquarters or rusthåll, No. 91 Ekeflod; No. 92 Björkmossa, No. 93 Hässlid, No. 94 Aggstorp and No. 95 Misterhult. It was a beautiful sight to see when these five hussar squads participated together with the soldiers of the Kungliga Kalmar Regemente in church parades and on other ceremonial occasions.

Then one day the hussars and the entire squadron were mustered for the regular regimental maneuvers, usually at the end of August or the beginning of September. There was life and movement when the hussars assembled at Björkmossa. The day before the muster, the squadron commander arrived, usually a captain or lieutenant of cavalry, to get ready to receive his squadron. On the day before, the hussars at Björkmossa drew their rations for two days. The ration consisted of a loaf of bread each, two or three scoops of butter, a piece of salt pork and perhaps a piece of cheese. Besides these rations there were also several pecks of oats for the horses.

Then came the day of the muster and the hussars began arriving, by ones, twos and even up to seven and eight in company. The horses were tied to the inn fence on the harvested field, or perhaps to a tree. After the hussars had looked after and tended to their horses, word was passed to the captain. I remember to this day and can still hear how it sounded: “Captain, hussar No.92 Asp for Björkmossa reporting.” And the captain, in this case von Malmborg, replied: “Good! Next!”

When the entire squadron had assembled the inspection took place - of horses, equipment, personal appearance, etc. A hussar from Mörlunda had allowed his sideburns to grow so that they hung down on his shoulders, the longest sideburns I had ever seen. Lieutenant Carleson, who conducted the inspection, said: “In this army three kinds of beards are allowed: mustaches, like mine, imperials, i.e. narrow beards, like Sergeant Björkegren's and full beards like those of our regimental commander, Bråkenhielm. All other types of beards are forbidden. By the time evening prayers are said, Krig will be properly clipped and tidied up!” Krig hastened down to the carpenters in the barn, who also tended to haircutting and the sharpening of razors.

We at the inn had a lot of work to do serving coffee to the hussars, who needed something to drink with their sandwiches. Some of them bought a bottle of beer. The atmosphere was joyous and a few of the men were good singers and sang various songs. Many of the people from the surrounding farms gathered around for it was interesting to chat with hussars, for they brought with them new impressions and ideas from their home areas.

Then came the time for formation. The captain at that time gave orders that the following day's march was to go to Eksjö and Ränneslätt, which was the headquarters of the regiment as well as the maneuver area for the entire regiment. He also announced the billeting, who was to sleep in the hay loft of the headquarters or in lodgings and who was to watch the horses. Then followed evening prayers and a psalm was sung; "Thus passeth a day from our time on earth". The captain read the Lord's Prayer and a blessing and finally the soldiers gave the old soldier's prayer: "God bless the King and our Fatherland."

At four-thirty in the morning the bugler sounded reveille and the hussars rose and hastened to harness and feed the horses. Then they went for coffee in their mugs, serving themselves. The officers had their own breakfast on the second floor of the inn, the sergeants on the first floor.

At a quarter to seven the bugle sounded again, this time for mounting up. The squadron was ready for the march. Report to the squadron commander, then the morning prayers, the singing of a psalm, "The gleaming sun once more arises"; the saying of the Lord's Prayer, the blessing and the final "God save the King and our Fatherland". After a moment of silence Captain von Malmborg gave the command: "Staby Squadron, double file, forward march".

Slowly the squadron set itself in motion in order to ride to Upplanda, where it rested before continuing on to Eksjö.

Thus the regimental muster took place and when it was over the squadron returned to Björkmossa. The captain held a critique of the performance during the muster and maneuver. He then ordered that after the horses had rested three hours, the hussars were to return to their rusthåll.

Many people had assembled at Björkmossa to greet the returning hussars. It was amusing to hear the hussars tell about the muster and other maneuvers. When they described what great fields of grain they had seen during the maneuvers at the beginning of the 1890s, many people thought the hussars were lying.

Right up to the 1950s the hussar veterans came to Björkmossa to talk about the old times, which had been to them a wondrous holiday".

Rosen/Swedborg/Swedenborg

I am searching for family information about my great grandfather, Carl Johan Rosen, who later was known as Carl Johan Swedborg and finally as Charles Swedenborg. He was b. in Lugnås Parish (Skar.) 10 Oct. 1855, and may have been the s. of a Conrad Rosen.

He loved horses and chose not to live the life of his parents. He wanted to join the Swedish cavalry but his father wished him to enter the clergy. When Carl Johan did enter the military, his father forbade him to use the family surname Rosen and he enlisted as Swedenborg, the name of the great Swedish philosopher and mystic, Emanuel Swedenborg.

We know very little about Carl Johan in Sweden and he emigr. to the U.S. after 1876. By 25 May 1885, he and his wife-to-be, Maria Peterson, 25 years old, also a Swedish immigrant, were res. with John Emanuelson, age 33, his wife, E.M., age 27, both of Sweden, and their three children in St. Paul, MN.

On 10 Sept. 1885 Carl Johan (Charley) Swedborg, age 29, m. Maria Peterson, age 26 in St. Paul. Maria was b. in Ryssby Parish (Kron.) 6 April 1859. The couple had four children, all b. in Bloomington, MN - Ellen Mary Swedenborg Wright, Jennie Florence Ida Swedenborg Johnson, Robert Charles Swedenborg and Axel Richard Swedenborg. From there they moved to Pine City, MN and finally to California.

Stenfelt, Karlsson, Karlsdotter, Eriksson

I am interested in finding out about my relatives in the United States and am therefore asking readers of SAG, if they can help me. I have already solved the mystery of three siblings Stenfelt, who emigr. to Illinois 1863-1864. Three other siblings remain to be researched. They are:

1. Lena Catharina Stenfelt, b. 16 April 1842; emigr. from Döderhult Parish (Kalm.) 1866.

3. Adolf Fredrik Stenfelt, possibly used the Carlsson name, b. 28 July 1849; emigr. from Mönsterås 18 Sept. 1871.

The siblings first arr. in Galesburg, IL and from there went to Henderson Grove or Township in Knox County, IL. I have not been able to locate them there.

I am also interested in the following persons:

4. Karl Pehr Karlsson, laborer, b. 9 Jan. 1864; emigr. 21 Dec. 1892 from Forssa in Mönsterås Parish. He supposedly went to Moline, IL and d. there from tuberculosis in 1897.

5. Dorothea Mathilda Karlsdotter, b. in Mönsterås 19 April 1861; emigr. from that parish 16 May 1881. She was alive 1897 but according to information in the family, disappeared, without leaving a trace after a fire in Chicago.

6. Otto Sigfrid Eriksson, b. 5 June 1886; emigr. 10 March 1906 from Björnhult, Döderhult Parish. He disappeared and d. some time after 1916. His brother, Karl Antonius Eriksson, emigr. 1892 to Rock Island or Moline in Illinois.

Uhlin, Olsson

I am looking for any information concerning my missing relatives:

1. Frans Karlsson, b. in Kråksmåla Parish (Kalm.) 2 Nov. 1854, emigr. 1887 and assumed the name Frank E. Uhlin. In his last letter to my grandmother 1940 he said he was living in Escalon, CA, operating a fruit ranch. He had the following children, four married daughters - Astrid Egan, Elsie Craig, Grace Ralstone and Thyra Gallagher, living in Minneapolis. He had two sons - Richard Uhlin in Seattle and Albin Uhlin, residing in Cuba.

2. My grandmother (1893-1991) had two brothers, Jacob Olsson, b. 1884 and Julius Olsson, b. 1886, both in Morlanda Parish (Göt.). They emigr. during the years 1910 and 1920 and might have settled in Brooklyn, NY. Both seem to have married Norwegian women and each had children. I shall be happy for any clues.

Swan, Svahn

My maternal grandmother's brother, John Swan (Svahn) of Göteborg, came to the U.S. in the 1880s. He later became a naturalized U.S. citizen and moved to California. He made several trips back to Sweden during his lifetime.

I have several snapshots of his, taken in Sweden during his visits. The names noted on one of the pictures are - Ingrid Thoresen, Greta and Harry Holmstedt, Annie, Kersti and Mrs. Thoresen. On another picture dated 6 Aug. 1932 mention is made of Mrs. Thoresen's dau. Annie as having been married three years.

On another picture dated 2 Aug. 1924 I find the following names - Mrs. Johanson, Emil, Emil's daughter, Greta, Annie and Greta Thoresen, the wife of Sigurd Johanson, Kersti Thoresen and Sigurd Johanson.

Presumably the people in these pictures are Swedish. They may also be persons related to John Swan. Copies of these pictures are available to those who can provide additional information concerning these persons.

Ericsson

I am interested in making contact with relatives and/or friends of Ester Ericsson, whose last known address was Johannedalsgatan 11 B, Göteborg, Sweden.

Ms Ericsson was a correspondent with my maternal grandmother, Mrs. E.E.Ekstrom of Galesburg, IL. Mrs. Ekstrom, née Anna Elisabeth Svahn (Swan), departed from Göteborg 1894 for America. When she left for America, there were members of the family already in this country, but there were others who remained in the homeland. There was at least one, and there may have been two relatives who changed their minds after having come to America and returned to Sweden.

I have written a limited edition of a family history of the Swan (Svahn) family and would dearly love to share my information and receive news from members of the Svahn (Swan) family in Göteborg.

Smidt

Hans George Smidt was b. in the city of Falun ca. 1692. He m.in Falun 3 March 1720 Maria Stallcop, the widow of Johan Van De Wer. Their first child was b. in New Castle County, DE 12 Oct. 1720. I am seeking the name of the ship, the port of entry as well as the passenger list. Other members of the Smidt family may have come also.

Maria was the granddaughter of John Andersson Stallcop, a New Sweden founder. She and her first husband accompanied her sister, Christina Stallcop, married to the Rev. Ericus Tobias Björck, builder of the Old Swedes Church in Wilmington, when Björck returned to Sweden as pastor of the Christina Church in Falun. Björck supposedly kept a diary, which I understand is in the archives of the University of Uppsala. Has there been an English translation of the complete diary? Portions of the Stallcop and Smidt family histories would be included among his parish notes. I am seeking Hans George Smidt's Swedish ancestors as well as the origin of the Smidt name. I have been told that a fire in Falun in 1776 destroyed much of the material.

Elfvin/Ellvin

Johan August Elfvin, a barber, b. in Uppsala 20 Jan. 1865, emigr. to the U.S. 8 July 1885. His cousins - Per August Ellvin, b. in Hudiksvall 25 Dec. 1839; Svante Oscar Ellvin, b. in Hudiksvall 31 Dec. 1844 and Johan Alfred Ellvin, b. in Hudiksvall 3 Aug. 1848, all became seamen and in all likelihood they all ended up in America.

Another cousin, Carl Gustaf Ellvin, b. in Uppsala 10 March 1845, emigr. to the U.S. and there changed his name to Lee. He m. in Ludington, MI 5 July 1882 Magdalena Norling from Sundsvall and the couple had the following children - Frank Oscar Lee, b. in Ludington 21 April 1884 and Emeli Christina Lee, also b. in Ludington 21 Jan. 1887. The last word from the family was in 1889, when the family still was living in Ludington.

Any information concerning the Elfvin/Ellvin family will be received with much gratitude.

Johansson

I am trying to locate descendants in Sweden or the U.S. of my grandmother's brothers, children of Johannes Andersson, b. in Gökhem Parish (Skar.) 10 Jan. 1831 and his wife, Cajsa Jonsdotter, b. in Floby Parish (Skar.) 10 March 1825:

1. Johan August Johansson, b. in Gökhem 20 Jan. 1852, who emigr. to the U.S. 1886 and may have d. 31 Dec. 1906.
2. Anders Johansson, b. in Gökhem 14 Oct. 1853 and moved to Stockholm 1882.
3. Alfred Johansson, b. in Gökhem 12 Sept. 1856, who also moved to Stockholm 1882.
4. Frans Gustaf Johansson, b. in Gökhem 12 Feb. 1872, whose mother was Klara Johansdotter, b. in Gökhem 10 Sept. 1838.

Any information concerning them or their descendants will be appreciated.

Molander/Josephsson/Petersdotter

I am looking for information concerning Joseph Molander (1797-1875), church clerk (klockare) and organist, who res. in the parish of Länghem (Älvs.) and a previous, still unknown parish. His wife was Brita Maria Petersdotter, b. 1805. They had twelve children, of which three came to America, five died in infancy and four, who presumably remained in Sweden.

Those who came to America were: 1. Carl Gustaf, b. 1826; 2. Sven Otto, b. 1840 and 3. Wilhelm, b. 1843. These three settled in Princeton, IL, but also res. in Mendota and Moline, both in Illinois.

Those who died young were: 4. Maria Gustafva, b. and d. 1829; 5. Christina, b. 1832; 6. Hilda Christina, b. and d. 1836; 7. Augusta Josephina, stillborn 1846; 8. Hilda Josephina, b. and d. 1852.

Those who almost certainly remained in Sweden were: 9. Johan Martin, b. 1825; 10. Maria Gustafva II, b. 1830, also known as Stava or Stella. She was supposedly a fine singer; 11. Solomon, b. 1833, a pipe organ builder; 12. Claës/Claus, b. 1837, a manufacturer of window blinds..

I should especially like to have contact with any descendants of the Josephsson children who remained in Sweden.

Swedish Nobility Query

Ted Rosvall of Enåsen, Falekvarna, Sweden would like to know the whereabouts of a descendant of the Swedish noble family Rappe.

Gustaf Adolf Vilhelm Rappe, born in Stockholm 6 August 1849, the son of Carl Gustaf Bengt Fabian Rappe, a captain in the Swedish Army, and Hedvig Hydén, emigrated to the U.S. at an early age. He joined the United States Army, became an outstanding officer, and thereafter settled in San Diego, CA as a farmer. An estate inventory after the death of his sister in 1920, Hedvig Anna Rappe, who had married a captain in the Bohuslän Regiment, Ture Reinhold Leonard von Baumgarten, states that Gustaf Adolf Vilhelm Rappe then was deceased, but had left a son, Leo Rappe, who had assumed the surname of Wilson. His whereabouts was unknown to the Swedish authorities. Can anyone furnish information on the Rappe/Wilson family?
