Not everything is online!

Several years ago a kind lady, Beverly Hobbs, of Worcester, MA, sent me a bunch of photos that had their origins in the collections of her maternal grandmother, Anna Victoria Carlsson, b. 1881 in Viker (Öre.), who later worked for some time at the outdoors museum Skansen in Stockholm. All of these photos were taken in Stockholm, and presumably were her colleagues at Skansen. Some of them have names written on them. But that is not enough to identify them.

If someone looks familiar, please contact the SAG editor!

This photo was also taken in Stockholm, and the soldier's name, written across the picture was Albert Jansson.
