Central Minnesota and Northwestern Wisconsin Dop-Bok 1884-1887

James E. Erickson*

The Dop-Bok (Baptismal Book) discussed herein was called to my attention by Robert Olson of Hastings, MN, who purchased it for $10 from a Minneapolis book-seller in the spring of 1995. Its history prior to this purchase is unknown. It is a hardcover register that measures 7 3/4 x 9 3/4 inches. The front cover contains the simple hand-written title, Dop-Bok. On the top of the front endpaper are found the following words, handwritten in cursive style: "Låten barnen komma till mig. Jesus" (Let the children come to me. Jesus).<sup>1</sup> Below this sentence is printed the phrase, "Baptisms — 1884-1887." Baptismal entries are found on pages 8 through 25; pages 1 through 7 and 26 to the end are blank.

Although the Dop-Bok itself provides no overt indication of authorship or ownership, a number of tantalizing clues are contained amongst its entries. Of obvious import is the fact that between 1 January and 4 June 1884, the baptisms recorded in the register were performed in the central Minnesota towns of Aitkin, Brainerd, Compton, Little Falls, Motley, St. Cloud and Upsala. From 4 July 1884 onward, the majority of baptisms recorded in the register were performed in the northwestern Wisconsin towns of Grantsburg, Sterling, Trade Lake, and West Sweden.

Extraction of Dop-Bok Entries

Each individual baptismal record entered in the Dop-Bok consists of up to ten entries. The ten columns, which read across two pages, have the following headings (listed in their English translation): 1) Baptized, When; 2) Baptized, Where; 3) Name; 4) Born, When; 5) Born, Where; 6) the Names of the Parents; 7) Parish Membership or Congregation; 8) Sponsors or Witnesses; 9) Entry in Church Book; and 10) Baptismal Certificate.

*Dr. James E. Erickson, associate editor of SAG, resides at 7008 Bristol Boulevard, Edina, MN 55435.

Most of the information entered in the Dop-Bok is presented in Table 1. Because of space constraints, it was necessary to exclude the less germane information contained in Columns 7, 9 and 10. Given the nature of the original records, which were replete with both Swedish and English abbreviations, the following changes from the original were deemed appropriate and, thus, made: 1) Swedish words, phrases, and abbreviations were replaced by English translations; 2) in certain instances, ditto marks were replaced by the actual dates, names or phrases indicated; and 3) spellings of place names were corrected or updated and references to county and state were omitted.

The Dop-Bok Author and Owner

I began with the premise that the original author/owner of the Dop-Bok was most likely a Lutheran pastor in the Minnesota Conference of the Augustana Synod. Furthermore, since the preponderance of baptisms recorded in the Dop-Bok were performed in towns in Burnett Co., WI, between 1884 and 1887, I assumed that the individual in question was probably serving as pastor of one or more congregations in Burnett Co. during this time period. Rev. Gustaf Wahlund's known term of service with the Lutheran congregation in Trade Lake (1884-1887) made him the prime candidate.<sup>2</sup> The following additional lines of evidence lend credence to this deduction.

First, entries in the Dop-Bok from the towns of Aitkin, Bluffton, Brainerd, Compton, Little Falls, Motley, St. Cloud and Upsala between 1 January and 4 June 1884 suggest that the author/owner of the Dop-Bok was active in and around the central Minnesota counties of Aitkin, Crow Wing, Morrison and Otter Tail during this time period. Prior to his pastorate in the Trade Lake area of Wisconsin, Gustaf Wahlund served as a student pastor in central Minnesota during the period 1883-1884.<sup>3</sup>

Second, Gustaf Wahlund received a call early in 1884 (probably February) to be the pastor of the Trade Lake, WI, congregation. Among the fourteen items recorded in the minutes of the special parish meeting held in the church at Trade Lake on 30 January 1884, the following three (translated from the original Swedish) are most pertinent:<sup>4</sup>

- 4) It was moved and seconded that the Student G. Wahlund from Brainerd, Minnesota (italics mine) be considered as candidate for the choice of minister of Trade Lake's church. Motion carried.
- 5) The motion by And. Anderson No. 3 seconded by John Asker to draw up and send a call to Student G. Wahlund to be the church's minister was unanimously approved by all those present at the meeting.

•6) The motion by And. Anderson No. 3 seconded by P. J. Person that for the first year promise a salary of $275.00 to Student G. Wahlund from Trade Lake's church together with a dwelling-house and firewood. Unanimously approved.

Third, the Dop-Bok records that three baptisms were performed in Wisconsin (one in Trade Lake and two in West Sweden) on three consecutive days at the end of March 1884. What makes this peculiar is the fact that all other entries in the Dop-Bok for the first half of 1884 are for baptisms in Minnesota. It is my contention that Gustaf Wahlund, after receipt of the job offer noted above, visited the Trade Lake church at the end of March 1884. That the purpose of this visit was to "check out" his prospective employers and/or finalize the deal is merely conjecture. That three baptisms were performed in Wisconsin by the author/owner of the Dop-Bok, while he was obviously living in Minnesota, is fact.

Fourth, the Dop-Bok entries reveal a hiatus from 4 June 1884 (the date of the last baptism in Brainerd, MN) to 4 July 1884 (the date of the first baptism in Trade Lake, WI). Interestingly, the Trade Lake church register notes that Gustaf Wahlund arrived "from Brainerd, Minn. 3 July 1884."<sup>5</sup> It is my contention that this one-month hiatus in the Dop-Bok entries reflects the time required for Gustaf Wahlund to finish his ministry in Minnesota, pack his worldly possessions, and move to Wisconsin to begin a new pastorate.

Fifth, in the three and one-half-year period from July 1884 to December 1887, only one entry in the Dop-Bok reflects a baptismal place other than the Trade Lake, WI area. On 10 Dec. 1884, Maria Elisabeth, the daughter of O. P. and Johanna Wahlund, was baptized in Minneapolis. This information leads me to infer that Rev. Gustaf Wahlund traveled from Trade Lake to Minneapolis to baptize his niece. Olof Petter Anderson Wahlund, who unquestionably is Gustaf's older brother, subsequently moved, with his family, to Trade Lake, WI from Minneapolis in 1885.<sup>6</sup>

Sixth, a comparison of handwriting in selected entries in the Dop-Bok with corresponding entries in the actual church registers from respective Minnesota and Wisconsin congregations known to have been served by Gustaf Wahlund leads me to one conclusion—they were written by the same individual.<sup>7</sup>

Finally, the last baptism recorded in the Dop-Bok was performed on 26 Dec.

1887. Just two months later, on 23 Feb. 1888, Rev. Gustaf Wahlund moved to a new pastorate in Spring Lake, MN.<sup>8</sup>

Rev. Gustaf Andersson Wahlund, Lutheran Pastor

Gustaf Andersson Wahlund was born in Brålanda Parish (Älvs.) on 2 February 1856. He attended Ahlberg's School in Örebro prior to his arrival in the U.S. on 13 August 1872. Wahlund then attended Augustana College, Rock Island, IL (1882-83), and was ordained in Andover, IL, on 22 June 1884. After serving as a student pastor in central Minnesota (1883-84), he served the following Lutheran churches: Trade Lake, WI, 1884-1887; Spring Lake, MN, 1888-1911; and Ham Lake, MN, 1915-1928. In addition to these pastorates, he held the following positions: member of the Minnesota legislature (1891-1897); manager of North Star College; assistant manager, Minnesota College Boards; State Board of Char. and Correction; Board of Visitors to Public Institutions; editor and publisher of Vårt Hem. Gustaf Wahlund died on 9 November 1934.<sup>9</sup>

Gustaf was married at Trade Lake, WI, on 13 June 1885 to Alma Asker, who was born in Älgårås Parish (Skar.) on 23 November 1865. Her family emigrated from Sweden in 1868 and arrived at Trade Lake in 1869.<sup>10</sup>

Twin daughters, Alma Beata and Hilma Laura, were born to Alma and Gustaf Wahlund at Trade Lake, WI, on 24 January 1886. They were baptized at home the same day, with the parents serving as witnesses. Hilma Laura died on 24 January 1886 and her sister, Alma Beata, on 31 January 1886. The cause of their deaths is alluded to by their father, who wrote the following notation next to their names in the Trade Lake (Zion) Lutheran Church Register: "these children born about two months to [sic] early." The infant girls were buried in the church cemetery on 7 February 1886.<sup>11</sup>

Approximately 13 months after this tragic loss, twin sons, Emanuel and Oskar Gustaf Adolph, were born to Alma and Gustaf at Trade Lake on 14 February 1887. Emanuel was baptized the day of his birth and died two days later, on 16 February. Oskar Gustaf Adolph was baptized on 1 March 1887. Both infants were baptized at home by J. A. L. (undoubtedly Rev. J. A. Lund), with the parents serving as witnesses. Emanuel was buried in the church cemetery on 1 March 1887.<sup>12</sup>
