

12-1-2018

The Last Page

Follow this and additional works at: <https://digitalcommons.augustana.edu/swensonsag>

Recommended Citation

(2018) "The Last Page," Swedish American Genealogist. Vol. 38: No. 4, Article 18.
Available at: <https://digitalcommons.augustana.edu/swensonsag/vol38/iss4/18>

This Article is brought to you for free and open access by the Swenson Swedish Immigration Research Center at Augustana Digital Commons. It has been accepted for inclusion in Swedish American Genealogist by an authorized editor of Augustana Digital Commons. For more information, please contact digitalcommons@augustana.edu.

The Last Page

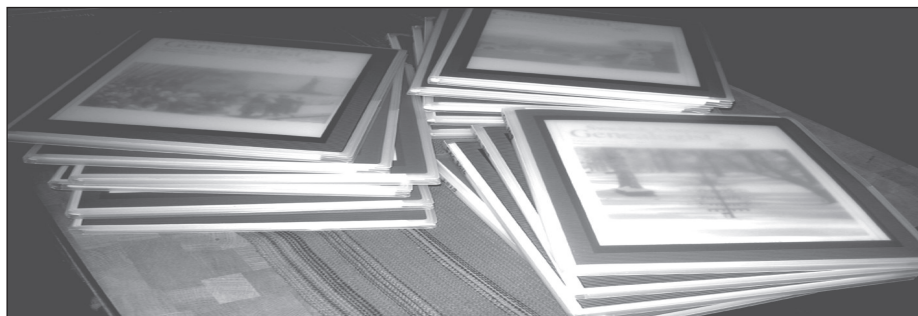

Dear friends,

This is the last time I will write to you as the SAG editor. But I am very pleased to be able to leave SAG in the good hands of Geoffrey Fröberg Morris, a.k.a Geoff.

For me this has been a fantastic journey, and I am so grateful to all the kind persons that have sent in interesting stories, often handed down from the ancestors. I have also received amazing photos that have enhanced the SAG pages.

Some of the SAG readers have also come to the SAG Workshop in Salt Lake City, and have become personal friends, whom I hope to see again at the next Workshop.

Will I sit in my rocking chair now and twiddle my thumbs? Well, I hardly think so, as my own ancestors are now seeking attention, after having been almost ignored for many years. Who was Cajsa Jons- dotter? Her own husband wrote in the family Bible that she was born in 1766 in Gåsborn (Värm.), but she is not found there. Perhaps property records will solve that problem?

Each folder contains 4 SAGs.

It would be nice to know what happened to the 600 or so persons that left my special parish of Nordmark (Värm.) for North America. Some of them I know about as we are related, but the others? And then my husband Bengt and I are trying to understand our DNA matches. Recently Bengt found that a match with a high cM was descended from his grandmother's unknown father!

Our grandchildren and great-grandchildren will also keep us busy.

Occasionally you might also see me in SAG again, so it is not a total goodbye.

All the best! Elisabeth

Help us promote the SAG journal!

Do you belong to a Swedish genealogy or other Swedish interest group? Even a group that only sometimes focuses on Sweden? We are happy to supply SAG back issues and subscription brochures for you to use as handouts.

If you will have a raffle or drawing, we can even provide a certificate for a 1-year subscription to SAG for you to give away.

Contact Jill Seaholm at <jillseaholm@augustana.edu>, or 309.794.7204. Thank you!

The correct SAG web address:

<http://www.augustana.edu/swenson/sag>

The Swenson Center logo!

SAG Workshop

Salt Lake City

3-10 Nov. 2019!

The Family History Library.

The SAG Workshop is the highlight of the year – a fun learning experience and a chance to do your Swedish genealogy with hands-on help from experienced Swedish and American genealogists.

Paid subscribers are mailed a SAG Workshop reservation form in March upon request

<http://www.bitly.com/SAGWorkshop>